berna.numan@emu.edu.tr | +90 (0) 392 630 2065

Research Interests:

I am interested in the link between transnational norms, debates, and laws. Examining this link involves looking at mechanisms within different deliberative forums, such as legislative assemblies, public spheres, and expert communities. I am particularly interested in European societies and the European Union, especially the body of law on Anti-Discrimination and Freedom of Movement. In terms of research methods, my expertise lies in qualitative and quantitative content analysis and discourse analysis.
